

RE: FAXING I petition the FCC for a Stay of the Rules seeking to delay the effective compliance date in order to allow publishers significant time to seek express written permission from subscribers. It is our hope the FCC will act on this request before the new fax rules take effect. Given the potential serious impact this decision may have on the magazine publishing market, we believe the Stay of the Rules request to be an important first step in challenging the ruling